CANADIAN MARITIMES

Discover the stunning beauty, sprawling landscapes, and charming people of the Canadian provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and Prince Edward Island. A rich fishing history and strong maritime traditions allow these communities the ability to trace their heritage back to European colonists of 1605.

Dear Alumni and Friends,

Join us on this enriching adventure to uncover Canada's provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and Prince Edward Island. With its splendid natural beauty, strong maritimes traditions, and welcoming locals, this region has much to offer.

First explore beautiful Halifax—Nova Scotia's friendly capital—during a panoramic city tour, including visits to the Citadel National Historic Site and Fairview Cemetery—the final resting place for 150 victims of the RMS Titanic.

During a tour of the south shore, admire the stunning landscape of Lunenburg—a charming fishing village and one of only two towns in North America designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Continue to Peggy's Cove to see its famous lighthouse.

En route to Digby, stop at the national historic site of Grand-Pré, which commemorates the area as the center of Acadian settlement from 1682 to 1755.

Experience Tea with Eleanor on Campobello Island and learn how President and Mrs. Roosevelt impacted this quaint area. Then spend time at the Bay of Fundy and learn of its impressive tide differential and geological treasures like fossils and minerals.

Space is limited. With significant savings of more than $800 per couple, we anticipate this tour will fill quickly, so be certain to reserve your spot today and share this brochure with family and friends who may be interested in traveling with you.

Reserve today online at uhouston.orbridge.com, by calling (866) 639-0079 or by returning the enclosed reservation form.

Day-by-Day Itinerary:

Day 1: En Route from U.S. / Arrive in Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada

Welcome to Nova Scotia! Upon arriving, connect with your kilted Orbridge Travel Director to transfer to the hotel in downtown Halifax. After check in, meet up with fellow travelers at a welcome reception to learn more about the exciting week ahead. The remainder of the evening is yours to relax and become acquainted with this capital city.

Overnight: Lord Nelson Hotel & Suites (R)

Day 2: Halifax

After breakfast, set out on a city tour of Halifax, including stops at the site of the Halifax Explosion (the 1917 maritime disaster), Fairview Lawn Cemetery—to learn about Halifax's connection to the Titanic, and the Citadel National Historic Site—a 19th-century star-shaped fortification commemorating the city's role as a key naval station in the British Empire.

This afternoon, discover Nova Scotia's pristine south shore during a visit to Lunenburg, designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1995—and one of only two cities in North America holding this moniker. Colorful homes dot the harbor of this picturesque village, which has been home to fishermen and shipbuilders since the 1700s, as well as home to the famous ship, Bluenose II.

Returning toward Halifax, stop in Mahone Bay for a photo opportunity to capture the iconic three stately churches nestled on the waterfront.

Today's final highlight includes a visit to the quaint fishing village of Peggy's Cove, which hosts one of the most well-known, and perhaps most photographed, lighthouses in Canada—Peggy's Point Lighthouse.

Overnight: Lord Nelson Hotel & Suites (B,D)

Day 3: Halifax / Digby

Bid Halifax a fond farewell as today's journey continues northwest to the rural UNESCO World Heritage Site, Grand-Pré (meaning great meadow). Learn about Le Grand Dérangement, a forced exodus of the French Acadians that took place from 1755 to 1762, and view the powerful monument that unites the French Acadian people. This mass expulsion sent the French Acadians to various British colonies as well as Britain and France, from where many migrated to Louisiana (and became the ancestors of modern-day Cajuns).

Before departing, take the opportunity to photograph the legendary statue of Evangeline that stands before the Memorial Church.

Afterward, meet the vintners at Planters Ridge Winery, housed in a newly-renovated barn with a 150-year-old history. Built in 1864 by Enoch Woodworth, the farm remained within the Woodworth family for seven generations until purchased in 2010 by the current owners.

During a tour and tasting, learn how Nova Scotia's rich soil and mesoclimates create some of the most distinctive, premium-quality grapes in North America.

Next venture to Hall's Harbour, a pictorial fishing community located along the shore of the Bay of Fundy. Take a tour of the Lobster Pound, which serves as one of the largest lobster holding facilities in Canada with a capacity of up to 65,000 pounds, before sampling a delicious, fresh-made lobster roll. Arrive this evening in Digby and enjoy a relaxing dinner to close out the day.

Overnight: Digby Pines Golf Resort & Spa (B,L,D)

Day 4: Digby / Saint John, New Brunswick / Saint Andrews

After breakfast, embark upon a ferry ride to Saint John for a brief panoramic overview of the area before continuing to Saint Andrews—fondly known as St. Andrews-by-the-Sea—designated a National Historic District and one of the oldest and loveliest towns in the Maritimes. Check in to the famous Algonquin Resort and take some time to enjoy the idyllic surroundings at your leisure.

Overnight: The Algonquin Resort (B)

Day 5: Campobello Island

Today's adventures include a boat ride to visit Campobello Roosevelt International Park. The late U.S. President Franklin Roosevelt spent his summers on Campobello Island, filling his days with activities like sailing and hiking. He first visited as a boy, and later with his wife, Eleanor, and their children.

Enjoy a guided tour of Roosevelt's impressive summer home, and explore the exhibits and artifacts in the Visitor Centre before experiencing Tea with Eleanor, and an enlightening hour where guides share stories about Mrs. Roosevelt and her accomplishments.

The remainder of the day is yours to indulge in the various amenities and activities back at the resort.

Overnight: The Algonquin Resort (B,L)

Day 6: Saint Andrews / Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island

After breakfast, return toward Saint Andrews, first stopping at Fundy National Park—one of the marine wonders of the world. Approaching Hopewell Rocks, gaze in awe at the four-story flowerpot-shaped sculptures the tides have meticulously carved from the cliffs. This remarkable location features the widest range of tides in the world, with high tide reaching 46 feet above sea level. At low tide, visitors can walk along the ocean floor beneath the towering rock formations, a truly unique experience.

Later this afternoon, continue the journey across the renowned Confederation Bridge to captivating Prince Edward Island. One of Canada's top engineering achievements of the 20th century, this 8-mile-long bridge is the longest in the world crossing ice-covered water.

Overnight: The Great George (B,L)

Day 7: Charlottetown

Head out on a guided city tour of Charlottetown before venturing to the Cavendish area to visit the fabled home of Anne of Green Gables, the inspiration for Lucy Maud Montgomery's novels.

Admire the white sand beaches, red sandstone cliffs, and rolling dunes as you travel through Prince Edward Island National Park. At Cavendish Beach, test the water during a brief stop to dip a toe in the ocean.

Tonight's dinner is a real treat—a traditional Prince Edward Island lobster supper where tasty chowder or soup, delicious locally cultivated mussels, salad, and homemade rolls accompany a one-pound lobster. And, if waistbands allow, indulge in a dazzling array of scrumptious sweets!

Overnight: The Great George (B,D)

Day 8: Charlottetown / Cape Breton, Nova Scotia / Baddeck

Take a ferry ride across the warmest waters north of the Carolinas—the Northumberland Strait—en route to Cape Breton, known as the "Scotland of North America." Cape Breton's most famous resident, Alexander Graham Bell, once said, "I have traveled around the globe. I have seen the Canadian and American Rockies, the Andes, the Alps and the Highlands of Scotland, but for simple beauty, Cape Breton out-rivals them all."

At the village of Baddeck, visit the Alexander Graham Bell National Historic Site to discover Bell's legacy—from his humanitarian accomplishments to his gigantic kites, airplanes, and a boat that flew.

Later, experience a one-of-a-kind musical event during a traditional Baddeck Gathering Ceilidh, or kitchen party. These get togethers feature local musicians playing the fiddle or bagpipes, and entertainers like dancers and storytellers.

Overnight: Lynwood Inn (B,D)

Day 9: Cabot Trail / Baddeck

Today's highlight includes a drive on the 186-mile route that makes up the famous Cabot Trail. Learn the history of this beautiful island, making sure to have a camera ready for impromptu photo stops to capture the striking landscape. Travel through Cape Breton Highlands National Park to visit the intriguing village of Cheticamp, famous for its crafts and French Acadian culture, before returning to Baddeck for an evening at leisure.

Overnight: Lynwood Inn (B,L)

Day 10: Baddeck / Halifax / Depart for U.S.

After breakfast, return to Halifax by crossing the Canso Causeway. Guests departing during the suggested times take the complimentary transfer to Halifax Stanfield International Airport for flights home. (B)
